*As you are able, please stand.

Special thanks to guest musician, George Penedo. George performs at Native Music shows, Powwows, weddings and other special events. He hosts and teaches at the Rhode Island Native American Flute Circle and also provides music therapy at a local hospice in-patient center for the staff and patients as part of the International Native American Flute Association. George’s original music can be heard on the Emmy Award-winning documentary Mystic Voices: The Story of the Pequot War, which is currently being shown on PBS stations across the country. His CD recordings will be for sale after the service at our Book Table, with a portion of the proceeds to benefit First Church.

Please join us for coffee and fellowship after the service in the narthex.
Visitors are invited to take a blue cup so that we may recognize and welcome you.

Due to recent incidents, please do not leave valuable personal property on the coat rack.
We cannot be held responsible for lost or stolen property.

Childcare for any age child is in the John Winthrop School.
